*BUSINESS CONSULTANT,
EXECUTIVE COACH,
RETREAT FACILITATOR*

BIO

Tawni Janvrin is the founder of Pomegranate Consulting, a consultancy agency dedicated to advancing organizations and individuals by launching their ambitious pursuits. With over 15 years of Fortune 100 Corporate Strategy experience, eight years of Entrepreneurial immersion, and ten years of Angel Investing and Board participation, she can bring insights, wisdom, and consultancy to high-achieving leaders seeking effectiveness and efficiency.

Her success lies in her ability to partner, listen, and lead with driven individuals. A core belief is that personal change and increased leadership capacity come from thoughtful intention, strategic planning, and massive action. This is why she utilizes structured consultations to challenge mindsets and take calculated risks to achieve results. She has great admiration for the clients she serves and tremendous pride in the accomplishments delivered.

Tawni earned her BA and Master's in Business Administration and is ICF Certified in Executive Coaching. She believes in practical learnings and wisdom that come from the 'School of Life' which she leans into with her clients so they can best utilize their unique experiences to shape the trajectory of their goals. With personal experiences of overcoming generational poverty, being a first-generation college graduate, backpacking within 25+ countries, and living in San Francisco for over 15 years she acknowledges that we grow from the risks and challenges we choose to take on or adapt from.

Tawni is an honored mom to two beautiful girls, and a lucky wife to a supportive husband. When not consulting or coaching, she enjoys hiking, snowboarding, beach days, gardening, and reading.
